

Kan.-Based Supplier Airxcel Acquires Dicor Corp.

October 1, 2016 by RVBusiness

Wichita, Kan.-based Airxcel Inc. announced today (Oct. 1) that it has acquired Dicor Corp. Dicor has been a leading RV industry supplier for over 32 years, and boasts a collection of affiliate brands that include Dicor Products, United Shade, Vixen Composites and Seal Design.

Elkhart, Ind.-based Dicor and its affiliates are well known for providing innovative RV roofing systems, wheel componentry, window shades, FRP, composite paneling, window sealing as well as a wide array of aftermarket care and repair products.

“The Airxcel management team has a deep level of respect for Dicor, its products, heritage and dedication to customer service. We are pleased to welcome Dicor and its talented team into Airxcel,” said Jeff Rutherford,

“The Dicor team is looking forward to joining the Airxcel family. We have long been an admirer of Airxcel’s leading product initiatives and their culture of excellence. Being associated with Airxcel will allow each entity to benefit from the other’s key competencies and drive higher levels of customer satisfaction,” stated Gregg Fore, Dicor president.

“I am so excited to be part of the Airxcel family,” said Gary Adamson, CEO of Dicor. “The synergy created between these two companies will be amazing. Their reputation for service and quality as well as the outstanding individuals who there will make this partnership a significant plus in the marketplace.”